

A training session titled "Gender Discrimination in the Labor Market: Forms, Support for Victims, and Legal Regulation" was held

The Victimology Society of Serbia held a training named "Gender Discrimination in the Labor Market: Forms, Support for Victims, and Legal Regulation" on May 15 and 16, 2024. The training was attended by representatives from the Ministry of Labor, Employment, Veteran, and Social Affairs, the Labor Inspectorate, the Labor Inspection departments from Užice and Kikinda, representatives from the Employers' Union of Serbia, the "Sloga" Trade Union, the Union of Doctors and Pharmacists of Serbia, as well as The Trade Union "Nezavisnost".

The goal of the training was to enhance the participants' capacities for the prevention of and response to gender-based discrimination in the labor market. The training was organized within the framework of the project "Advocating for the Rights of Victims of Gender-Based Violence, especially Domestic Violence, Workplace Violence, in Educational and Other Institutions," implemented by VDS with financial support from the Kingdom of Sweden and the Kvinna till Kvinna Foundation.
